

G is for Golden: A California Alphabet (Hardback)

By David Domeniconi

Cengage Learning, Inc, United States, 2002. Hardback. Book Condition: New. Pam Carroll (illustrator). 292 x 234 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Columnist David Domeniconi has researched close-to-home topics for his new book, G is for Golden: A California Alphabet. This is David s first children s book and it contains 40 pages of entertaining and educational facts about California. David captures California on so many fronts - its natural history, social sciences, inventors, and even its forty-niners. On the T is for Television page, the reader discovers Philo Farnsworth, a 21-year-old farmer who gleaned the idea to transmit the world s first television picture by looking at the patterns in the rows he had plowed in his field. Another California first was the creation of the United Nations Charter, signed by representatives of 50 countries at the San Francisco Opera House in 1945. Readers of G is for Golden also learn about the world s largest find of Ice Age fossils at the La Brea Tar Pits, the 21 missions that line El Camino Real, Cesar Chavez s vision, and Rodia s Watts Towers. The series employs a two-tiered approach to reach all students from Pre-K through 4th...
