Mother Nature has finally quelled her wrath. She has succeeded in stalling technology as we know it today. Her warning must be heeded: Learn to walk before you run. The solar storm, as you remember, lasted for eight months. The crust of this planet was left scarred with disaster zones. Those that survived natures warning, mainly the young, managed to migrate. The elderly were less fortunate. They were left abandoned to live in sweltering heat and forced to recreate a past life that is void of a babys cry. This story, based on the authors original screenplay, focuses on twoseparatecommunities where dying has become an industry, a woman able to give birth now only a dream. The disillusioned Reverend Dickinson shepherds his ageing community by false-hope, whilst, a few miles away, Trader barter life for death using a macabre reminder of the past to gain economic superiority. In the midst stands the beautiful young woman, Danya. Protected by her shotgun wielding, abrasive mother, Danya is the only remaining hope of escaping the poverty and aridness that surround them...
