By George F Bacon

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Leading Business Men of Willimantic and Colchester It has manufacturing establishments unsurpassed in the country. It has its graded schools, elaborate church edifices, public cemeteries, lofty town buildings, its summer visitors, its market of gardens, its Roseland Park and all the usual accompaniments of modern civilization. The Windham County of to-day, as typified by its business centres, is wide-awake, progressive; a true child of the nineteenth century. These words apply with special force to the borough of Willimantic, for the concentration of manufacturing enterprises at that point, and the zeal and ability with which they have been carried on, have not only arrested the decline of Windham - which at one time was rapidly going on and was attended by the removal of the county seat to Brooklyn - but have made that town the richest and the first in population of any in the county. Of course, Windham Green - the old shire town - is not what it was. Gradually but surely her business interests have been abandoned or transferred to Willimantic,...
