Every woman loves a good book, especially if that book describes through the Word of God how to prepare herself for love. Who doesn't want to be in love? Love makes the world go around. Love drives the birds to sing. Love births people and people birth movements. As women, we are encompassed with so much hype about what a man wants and what he needs. There are magazines which give us hints and clues, websites, and so much more, but we want a love that lasts and we want to know from someone experienced in those areas to share how they found love, not what makes great sellers. We don't want gimmicks, tricks, and we certainly don't want to play games. Many of us are getting older and may have more years behind us than ahead of us so time is of the essence. What do we do and how do we do it? I am a very happily married woman to a wonderful husband and doting father. But I have not always been blessed by love....
