Reviews

Absolutely among the best publication I have got at any time go through. It really is written in straightforward phrases rather than hard to understand. It's been designed in an extremely straightforward way which is just soon after I finished reading this publication through which basically modified me, alter the way I believe.

Audible Studios on Brilliance, United States, 2016. CD-Audio. Book Condition: New. Unabridged. 171 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New. I didn t realise that for want of one person the world could be meaningless. Blissfully in love for the first time, 17-year-old Polly thus confides to her grandmother, Muff. And these words could equally well have been spoken by Muff, or Polly s mother, Tessie. Muff can never forget her beloved brother Con, killed in the First World War, and Tessie has never recovered from the loss of her great childhood friend, Mike. Both women have married, but their lives are unfulfilled and haunted by cherished memoriesMuff looks back longingly to her youth when she was a great beauty and mourns the frailty of old age, and Tessie sadly contemplates her failures: as wife, mother and woman. This sensitive story of women and love across three generations moves in time between the early part of the century, the Second World War and the 70s. An elegantly written novel, it is both funny and sad, remarkable for its perceptive treatment of human weakness. Pamela Haines was born in Yorkshire, like so many of the characters in her novels. Knaresborough, Leeds and Harrogate have all played a part in her family background. She was educated at a convent in the Midlands, and then read English at Newnham College, Cambridge. As a child she wrote non-stop, but around the age of 17, life became too busy, and she did not write again until her late 30s, by which time she was married to a doctor, and had five children. In 1971 she won the Spectator New Writing Prize with a short story, and eventually completed her first novel, Tea at Gunter s, in 1973. Critically acclaimed, it was the joint winner...
