Not illustrated. 1877 Excerpt: .ascension of Jesus to the heavens is the highest possible expression of the grace of our God towards mankind. It is an expression of His kindness and favour towards mankind as a race. All great men s fame and fortunes belong to humanity. Poets, discoverers, heroes of the first class, belong to the whole world rather than to any single nation. How much more does the exaltation of Christ belong to and glorify the race from which He sprang! Let us remember this when we look upon man s degradation. When we see the black and sunken African, the London thief or drunkard, or the strange woman raging towards perdition; when we hear of races fallen so low that civilized men hesitate to acknowledge O the relationship; let us look unto Jesus, and remember that for the vilest and the most downtrodden he has gone to...
