Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Spiritualism and Allied Causes and Conditions of Nervous Derangement The Physics and Physiology of Spiritualism, a little book based upon an article contributed to the North American Review having for several years been out of print, I have taken the opportunity presented by the demand for a new edition to reform the work, and to extend it very far beyond its original limits. In so doing I have not only re-written and amplified the remarks on Spiritualism, but have included within the scope of the present volume several other subjects, not only analogous in their scientific relations to the discussion in question, but which are in themselves, perhaps, still more interesting to the general reader. Throughout, my object has been to strip from the basis of fact, which almost always exists, the network of error which ignorance, credulity and superstition have woven around it. In making this attempt I have endeavored to avoid saying a word which could be tortured into an expression of disrespect for true and rational religion of any kind, especially for the fundamental beliefs of Christianity to which the civilized world owes so much. But for the faith, whether spiritualistic or mesmeric; whether medical or theological; whether orthodox or heterodox; whether Christian or Pagan; whether Protestant or Roman Catholic, which seeks to bolster itself up by so-called supernatural phenomena, or by alleged miraculous interpositions of the Deity in its behalf, I have not hesitated to speak with entire frankness and directness.
