By Syd McGinley

Torquere Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 376 pages. Dimensions: 7.9in. x 4.9in. x 0.9in. Dr. Fell has a new boy, a home, a dog, a Harley, along with a job and happiness within reach if only he can let himself trust his good fortune. He's struggling with his own bad habits, taking careful steps with a potential boy, and getting entangled in the ongoing dramas of his Ds friends. Throw in a Dom with a DUI and broken legs, the new boy coming out to his family, and a visit from a past love and it's all Dr. Fell can do to keep a handle on everything. The delicate balance he manages is rocked when he is confronted with new information about Rob's death. His reaction could jeopardize everything he has so painfully reclaimed. Dr. Fell must travel a hard road into his past before he can adjust to the new man he is becoming. Can Dr. Fell learn to accept help from others, believe that he is loved and seen as a family member, or will his stubborn loneliness drive away his forever boy Dont miss this second half of the Complete Dr. Fell story.
